

RED CROSS ELECTS AT A.W.A. MEET

Phyllis Hackman Johnson and Dot McCullough were elected to fill the positions of campus Red Cross co-chairmen at the AWA cabinet meeting last Wednesday.

Replacing this year's co-chairmen, Joanne O'Brien and June Storni, the new officers will supervise all Red Cross campus activities next year.

Miss McCullough is a freshman journalism major from Sunnyvale, and Mrs. Johnson is a junior general elementary student from San Jose. Members of the cabinet, they were elected from the service group in the general AWA election held Wednesday, June 6.

"This year has been one of the most successful in the history of the Red Cross unit on this campus," declares out-going Co-chairman Joanne O'Brien. "Because of the industry and faithfulness of the sewing volunteers, we have completed and surpassed our quota."

C.C.F. FINAL MEET TONIGHT AT 7:30; 10 TO BE HONORED

Collegiate Christian Fellowship will hold its final social meeting of the quarter this evening from 7:30 to 10 at the home of Misses Lois Schmidt and Mildred Stainbrook, 499 South Fifth street.

Ten graduating members will be honored at the "get-together" — five members are June graduates and five August graduates. The June graduates are Mildred Stainbrook, Ruth, Morris, Leslyn Leach, Betty Nantt, and Margaret Rogers. The August graduates are Lois Schmidt, June Cauvel, Billie McNabb, Douglas Neff, and Velma Hillman.

Organization sponsors and their wives will also be present. They are the Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Bellig, the Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Sands, the Rev. and Mrs. A. Carlson, and Dr. and Mrs. K. S. Hazeltine.

"DRAMATIC EVENING" SHOWS VARIED STUDENT PRESENTATIONS

BY MARGARET MOORE

In presenting the members of his Repertoire class in a program entitled "Dramatic Evening," Dr. Hugh Gillis brought forth the majority of his most able speech students and the result was gratifying.

Outstanding part of the evening was the production of Noel Coward's bitter one-act comedy, "Fumed Oak." In the capable hands of John Calderwood, Stella Pinoris, Jo Hildebrand and Elda Beth Payne, the story of Henry Dow's disillusionment and unhappiness in his family life realized itself to the audience. Characterizations in this play gave the audience a new view of the dramatic range of the young actors.

Equally well done were the four Shakespearean women. Each student gave her own interpretation and while they did not always agree with the individual interpretations of members of the audience, they were indisputably fine work. Jo Ann Hildebrand, Frances Gleason, Ruth Jensky, and Esther Hessling are to be commended.

One of the important parts of the evening was that each student was given an opportunity to show a contrast in type of selection and presentation. Ruth Jensky best illustrated this when in the first part of the program she displayed comedy sense in her interpretation of Dorothy Parker's "The Waltz," and later as the guilt-stricken Lady Macbeth, walking in her sleep.

HOMECOMING RESERVATIONS DUE SHORTLY

Reservations for the Alumni Homecoming luncheon Saturday, June 16, at 12:30 must be made now, announces Miss Doris Robinson, secretary-treasurer of the Alumni Association.

Miss Robinson, who is also Placement secretary for the college, is serving as chief assistant for the general chairman of Homecoming, Mrs. Frances Lanyon.

Reservations for the luncheon cost $1.10 per plate. The senior class is among groups which have reserved tables. The Commerce department and Phi Kappa Pi sorority alumnae have also reserved tables.

STUDENT AWARDS PRESENTED

LA TORRE WILL BE RELEASED LATE, EDITOR ANNOUNCES

Production difficulties will result in late release of the 1945 La Torre, announce Editor Anna Mae Diffin and Business Manager Jeanne Petrinovich.

Purchasers of the yearbook are requested to watch the Daily for announcement of the anticipated publication date, and for instructions on getting their copies.

Definite date for publication will be announced as soon as the printers give the La Torre staff an estimate of how long it will take them to print and bind the 1945 edition. It is expected that the book will come out early in the Summer Session.

Those who live in Santa Clara county will probably be able to call for their books on the release date, explains Miss Petrinovich; those who must have their books mailed will be required to pay a ten-cent mailing fee. Directions for mailing will be announced this week in the Daily.

The 1945 La Torre consists of 172 pages with a padded cover, so it will appear larger than last year's. One of the outstanding features will be nine division pages made up of co-ed "cover girls" on real magazine covers.

Outstanding Groups And Individuals Commended At Recognition Assembly

Outstanding students and groups in various phases of student activities were commended at Friday's Recognition Day assembly. Ann Ruscigno received the Spanish award from Dr. L. C. Newby. Dr. Newby also presented the French award to Marjorie Rouse "in the true French manner." Marge Howell received the German award.

Phelan contest winners were presented their prize money with James Rambo taking top honors.

SCHOLARSHIP

Students holding the 10 highest scholarship averages in the entire college were presented with plaques, while the 10 next highest record holders received honorable mention awards.

Edith Schlosser led the scholastic list with a straight grade point average of 3.00. Following in order were Jayne Bisazza, Dorothy Donnelly, Marymargaret Condon, Coral Marlin, Marilyn Davis, Alice Hunter, Alyce Crawford, Beverly Strong, Jan Hagerty, Betty Karstedt, Ann Ruscigno, Clorinda Burriesci, Mary Peterson, Rae Klason, Gloria Suess, Maureen De Smet D'Attilio, Carol Curtis, Maya Naziger, and Marjean Nygren.

BLACK MASQUE

New members of Black Masque were presented by this year's members. Those chosen to serve in the senior women's honorary organization for 1945-46 were Betty Regan, June Storni, Roberta Ramsay, Olga Popovich, Ruth McCue, Madge Jennings, Mary Hooton, Dorothy Jane Henderson, Phyllis Forward, Pat Dunlavy, Elizabeth Davis, La Verne Knapp, Marge Hopper. Miss Doris Smith was elected for the one-year faculty term, Miss Norma Gillespie as two-year adviser, and Miss Helen Dimmick as permanent adviser.

Spartan Spears for the forthcoming year were presented. The sophomore women chosen have already been named in the Daily.

The out-going Student Council was presented with gold keys and certificates of merit. Milo Badger, recently elected ASB President for 1945-46, presented the new council. Howard Riddle, president, presented the gavel to his successor.

$100 AWARD

Dr. James Wood presented the Patron's Association scholarship award for $100 to Dorothy Donnelly.

Red Cross awards were presented to AWA Co-chairmen Joanne O'Brien and June Storni; Cora Tate Peterson for her work as reporter; a special organization award went to Bibliophiles, Allenian, Beta Gamma Chi, and Delta Beta Sigma.

Ero Sophian and Sappho received special group awards for appearing on the Red Cross honor roll for seven quarters. Special individual awards for 200 hours went to June Storni, Rae Klason, and Marilyn Wilson. Jeanne Allen, Anna Mae Diffin, Phyllis Forward, Shirley Frusetta, Jacqueline George, Lorraine Jae, Barbara Lee Rico, Solveig Ronning, Marjorie Rouse, and Emma Ann Wishart received merit awards for 100 hours or more of work.

Howard Riddle, ASB president, was presented a Bible by the Collegiate Christian Fellowship Association.

Recital Announced

The Music department announces that there will be a piano and organ recital Thursday evening, June 14, which will be open to the public.

Mrs. Margaret Weyand, music instructor, is in charge of the program.

FREE MUSIC PHOTOS

To students of music appreciation and other interested persons, the San Jose Magazine and Book store is offering, free of charge, a sheet of 60 famous composers' pictures.

The photographs will be given away, without obligation, at the store at 119 E. San Fernando street.

SYMPHONY WILL PLAY TOMORROW

Last of three concerts this year will be the symphony orchestra program tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Morris Dalley auditorium. It will be free to the public, and will feature a piano solo by Mrs. Edith Eagan, instructor and student at San Jose State college.

The concert will be under the direction of Thomas Eagan, and will be the last time he will conduct the symphony orchestra, as Adolph Otterstein, Music department head now on leave, will return in the fall to take over the position. This will be the 53rd concert in which Eagan has participated, both as student and instructor. He is also director of the woodwind choir and symphonic band.

Mrs. Eagan will be conducted by her husband in playing the Beethoven Piano Concerto No. 1 in C Major. She is a part-time instructor here, and has studied music with Mrs. Augusta Brekelbaum, Mrs. Tamara Morgan, and Benning Dexter. This will be the 30th concert in which she has played.

Other numbers on the program will be the Carnival Overture, Op. 92, by Dvorak; Rustic Wedding Symphony, Op. 26, by Goldmark; and Prelude to the Meistersinger, by Wagner.

Spartans Liberated From Nazi Prisons Revealed By O.W.I.

Two former Spartans have been liberated from prison camps in Germany reveals the latest release from OWI.

First Lt. Llewellyn B. Cain Jr., husband of Mrs. Donna C. Cain of 1441 Shasta Avenue, San Jose, and 2nd Lt. Robert A. Folger, husband of Mrs. Ruth Folger of 256 N. Third street, San Jose, are the men liberated.

Lt. Cain attended San Jose in 1934-35, and had been cited for gallantry in action in France, where he was platoon leader of a rifle squadron. Lt. Folger attended between 1937 and 1939, and was a B-17 pilot until interned in Germany last July.

Final Softball Games

Tonight starts the final week of play in the softball league. The only two serious title contenders include the Cardinals and the Spartan Daily. The Cards have a record of five wins and two losses, and the Daily have seven wins against one loss.

If the two clubs go through this week unbeaten, they will meet each other Thursday in a play-off.

The schedule for this week is as follows: Tonight (Monday), June 11, DSG vs. Beta Chi, and Gamma Phi vs. Cardinals.

Tuesday, June 12, Spartan Daily vs. DSG, and Beta Chi vs. Eleventh Street.

Wednesday, June 13, DSG vs. Gamma Phi, and Eleventh Street vs. the Cardinals.

Thursday, June 14, Eleventh Street vs. Beta Chi, and Spartan Daily vs. the Cardinals.

Beta Chi Sigma Loses To Spartan Daily Ten; Sluggers Defeat DSG

Some sort of a league record was established last Thursday evening in one of the softball doubleheaders, when the Daily team defeated Beta Chi Sigma, 26-5.

The other game saw the Eleventh Street Sluggers defeat Delta Sigma Gamma, 11-3.

While Milo Badger, Daily pitcher, was holding the fraternity men to five runs on ten hits, his teammates were hitting Ray Lua, Beta Chi chucker, for 26 runs on 21 hits.

Milo Badger and Art Jacobson got home runs for the winners, while Fred Grinter boomed out a four-bagger for Beta Chi.

The Spartan Daily team have only DSG and the Cardinals to get over in order to win the 1945 softball title. The Cards are now in second place, followed closely by Gamma Phi Sigma.

Leading batters for the Daily during the contest were Badger, Jacobson, Loudon, McFarland, and Wreade, who all got three bingles apiece.

For the losers it was Dave Gehman and Bob Halsebo who drove out two safeties each.

In the other contest the Eleventh Street Sluggers pounced on Pete Galli of DSG for 11 runs and 6 hits. Errors on the part of DSG frequented the game, which would have otherwise been a pitchers' duel.

Walt Fletcher got two home runs for the Sluggers as well as holding the fraternity team to five scattered hits. Bud Hooton also "homed" for the winners.
